

$500

Helen Michaelsen Scholarship

P.E.O. Chapter DN

Available to a 2021 graduating senior woman

Deadline April 30, 2021

This award is in memory of Helen Michaelsen, who developed the Home Economics program at Central Washington University.

The scholarship is limited to young women who have exhibited excellence in leadership, academics, extracurricular activities, community service, and the potential for future success.

Please submit the following information to your high school counselor:

- (1) Your resume including your participation in leadership, academics, extracurricular activities and community service.
- (2) An essay of your plans for your future success.
- (3) Two references.
- (4) A budget of your financial plan for your education.
- (5) A Photograph.

The P.E.O. Chapter DN Scholarship Committee will make the selection from the applications received and the winner will receive the award at their high school awards ceremony.

We thank you for your interest and look forward to your application.

P.E.O. Chapter DN contact information is available from your school counselor.
